c. Headquarter (HQ) main office symbols will be used for preparing correspondence, addresses and Army filing system and sub-office's symbols will be used only for establish of office records system for each section or office.

d. Identify a part of official mailing addresses when used in accordance with AR 25-59, paragraph 9.

6. Procedures

a. Basic guidance for internal office symbols is as follows:

(1) Office symbols construction should contain no more than nine letters. There is an exception for very low unit by 10 letters.

(2) Characters other than letters of the alphabet will not be used in the construction of office symbols. Numbers will not be used in office symbols.

b. Construction of Eighth Army Office Symbols.

(1) Commonly used letter designators (Refer AR 25-59, Table 5).

(2) The first two letters (EA) identify Eighth Army.

(3) The third and fourth letters (EANC) identify the MSC (19th Expeditionary Sustainment Command) or the principal staff office (EAPE), Eighth Army G1.

(4) The fifth and sixth letter, separated by a hyphen from the first four letters, denotes a subordinate activity immediately below the MSC or staff. A seventh letter represents a staff division or the next lower organizational element. In many cases will be the last part of an office symbol.

(5) The seventh letter represents a staff section division, a comparable element, or the next lower organizational element. The eighth and ninth letters (if required) will be the last part of an office symbol and will be separated by a hyphen from the seventh letter. They represent an office below the company or company sized element. First portion will be four letters when need second portion and second portion will be three when need third portion.

Examples:

EAPE: G1, Eighth Army.

EAPE-PPP: Plans-Policies-Programs under G1, Eighth Army.

EAPE-PPP-H: Human Resource Service Division under Plans-Policies-Programs, G1, Eighth Army.

EAPE-PPP-HA: Awards Section under Human Resource Service Division, Plans-Policies-Programs, G1, Eighth Army.
